

Call for Submissions

Teaching Workshop

at the

IUCN Academy of Environmental Law

13th Annual Colloquium

September 8, 2015

Atma Jaya Catholic University

Jakarta, Indonesia

Organized by the Teaching and Capacity Building Committee of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law

Overview

The IUCN Academy of Environmental Law will hold a half-day workshop focusing on good practices in the teaching and learning of environmental law.

The Teaching Workshop provides the opportunity to discuss the latest developments in this field at the international level.

Call for Submissions and Workshop Participation

You are invited to submit your abstract proposal to contribute to the Teaching Workshop with your experiences and projects.

The scope of the workshop includes the following topics:

- Blended Learning
- Case Method
- Clinical Legal Education
- e-Learning
- Evaluation and assessment of student learning
- Experiences in joint education projects (national and international)
- Flipped Learning
- Innovative approaches to teach environmental sustainability and justice
- Inquiry based teaching
- Learning and Teaching Methodologies
- Mobile learning: Phones, Tablets...
- Moot Court Competitions
- Plagiarism
- Problem-Based Learning
- Scientific methodology or evidence based teaching
- Simulations
- Teaching Environmental Law from interdisciplinary perspectives
- Teaching research nexus
- Tutoring and Coaching
- University-Industry Collaboration

Submission Details

If you are interested in presenting your experience, please submit your proposals not exceeding 500 words to Sophie Riley and Maria Marquès, at Sophie.Riley@uts.edu.au and maria.marques@urv.cat, with a copy to the IUCN Academy Secretariat at iucnael@uottawa.ca. Proposals should have a title and include the name and contact details of the submitter.

Please submit your proposals by 28 February 2015.

Presenters are expected to attend the workshop in person.

Registration

Workshop attendance is open to all registered attendees of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law Colloquium. You may register for the workshop when you register for the Colloquium.